MEXICAN SITUATION TO BE FIRMLY HANDLED BY U. S.

Cullman County Sheriff and John Mack Are Killed in Pistol Duel

ACTION TO FOLLOW RECEIPT OF DETAILS OF LATE OUTRAGES

STATE DEPARTMENT EXPECTED TO ACT VIGOROUSLY AND PROMPTLY.

Information is Asked

HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR
ROBBERY BY BANDITS IS RE-PORTED TODAY.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—The United States government intends to handle the new outrages against American citizens in Mexico with a firm hand, despite assurances from Carranza that he would make earnest attempts to prosecute the murderers of John W. Carroll, victim of Mexican bandits. This was plainly reflected at the state department today.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—The senate foreign relations committee this afternoon unanimously reported out a resolution calling on the state department to furnish all information with reference to American claims against the Mexican government.

Both the state and navy departments were today awaiting reports that might give details of the Tame-se river incident. News of an additional Mexican outrage was officially received at the same time. A dispatch to the state department reported that on July 16 a band of Mexican bandits robbed the loading station of the Atlantic Refining Co., at Puerto Lobos, in the Tampico district, the lost consisting of $100,000 intended for the company's payroll.

TO RENEW EFFORTS

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—President Wilson was to renew today his efforts to clarify the situation by inviting Senator Norris of Nebraska and other republican senators to discuss with him at the White House the turning over to Japan by the peace conference of certain concessions in the Chinese peninsula.
Senator Norris declined today to say whether or not he would visit the President.

"PERSONAL DISLIKE"

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, July 21.—To "personal dislike" of President Wilson, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi attributed much of the opposition among certain republican senators to the ratification of the peace treaty in a speech in the senate this afternoon.

UNSYMPATHETIC VIEW

(International News Service.)
PARIS, July 21.—Secretary Lansing and Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, members of the peace delegation, in their recent message to President Wilson took an unsympathetic view of the decision to give part of the Chinese peninsula to Japan, although they did not formally protest, it was learned today.

Urges Republicans to Reduce H. C. of L.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—Progressive republicans are demanding a party offensive on the high cost of living, Senator Capper of Kansas indicated today. The problem of the high cost of living, Sen. Capper said, "is more important to the people than the league of nations, and the party in power must take some definite action before the next election."

Threatened Rain Cuts Attendance

The threatened rain prevented the usual large attendance at the Y. M. C.
A. lawn union service last night, but despite this, a good sized congregation heard the forceful sermon by Rev. M. M. Crow, pastor of the Westside Presbyterian church.

FOREST FIRES RAGE

(International News Service.)
DETROIT, June 21.—Forest fires are again raging in the northern part of Michigan, with greater fury than those of a few weeks ago. Many towns and villages are threatened.

BOOKS FOR THE WOUNDED SOLDIERS

The American Library association is collecting books for the wounded boys in the military hospitals of the country. In New York this pyramid was built to boom the work, 100,000 books being required for it.

Meeting Tonight in the Interest of Consolidation

A meeting in the interest of the consolidation of Albany and Decatur will be held tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the rooms of the Albany Board of Commerce. All friends of consolidation are invited and urged to attend, as business of importance will come up.
J. H. CALVIN,
Chairman Central Committee.

REAL RACE RIOTS FACE THE CAPITAL

SERVICE MEN THREATEN TO "CLEAN UP" TONIGHT.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—Washington today faced the possibility of witnessing real race riots. Following disturbance on two nights, the word went out today for the mobilization tonight of service men who it was stated would attempt to "clean up." The spark of race hatred has been smoldering for more than a week as the result of several attacks upon white women by negroes.

SAILORS ARE FIRED ON BY NEGROES IN AUTO

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—As a result of the race feeling here during the past few days by intermittent and minor rioting between white and negroes, several convalescent sailors were fired on today by four negroes proceeding by the naval hospital in a seven passenger automobile. Four shots were fired at a sentinel and four at the other sailors but none took effect. The negroes escaped. A canvass this afternoon showed the merchants here have sold more pistols today than on any other day in the city's history. Most of the purchases were made by negroes.

Boston Carmen Win Their Strike

MEN ARE NOW HIGHEST PAID IN THE WORLD.

(International News Service.)
BOSTON, July 21.—Wheels of surface, elevated and subway cars of the Boston Elevated Railway company today were again turning, following the strike of 7,800 employees. The strikers returned to work as the highest paid carmen in the world, including recognition of the 8 1/2 hour day with a minimum of 43 1/2 cents an hour.

TAXI DRIVER HELD UP AND ROBBED OF MONEY AND BOND

LOCAL OFFICIALS AID LIME-STONE OFFICIALS IN SEARCH FOR MEN.

Pike is Scene of Crime

SAID TO HAVE EMPLOYED DRIV-ER TO TAKE THEM TO DECATUR.

Local police and Sheriff May today were aiding the officials of Limestone county in an effort to apprehend two men who are said to have held up and robbed Taxi-driver Albright, of Athens, of between $65 and $75 in cash and a $100 Liberty bond Saturday night.
The Limestone county sheriff's office told The Daily today that two men employed Albright Saturday night to drive them back to Decatur.
The robbery is said to have taken place about three miles south of Athens on the Athens-Decatur pike.
The Decatur police and Sheriff May began work on the case early Sunday morning when it was reported here.
The alleged robbers are said to have headed this way but up to a late hour today had not been apprehended.

War Sentences Aggregate 28,000 Years, is Charged

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—Sentences imposed upon American soldiers by court martial during the war would aggregate about 28,000 years, Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, ranking democratic member of the military affairs committee, declared this afternoon in introducing a bill in the senate providing for the restoration of military rank and the granting of pardons to service men so sentenced.

Grayson Orders the President to Bed

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—President Wilson, immediately upon his return today from a week-end cruise on the Mayflower, was ordered to bed by his personal physician, Admiral Grayson, who said that the president was suffering from an attack of dysentery.
Admiral Grayson stated that the President's condition is not at all serious, but that he will take no chances and will keep him in bed until he has recovered.

WRATH OF LEGION IS AROUSED THRU LACKEY'S LETTER

IRONDALE MAN'S MESSAGE TO DAILY DRAWS RETORT FROM ORGANIZATION.

Insinuations Alleged

AND DENIED IN STATEMENT IS-SUED TODAY BY LEGION
OFFICIAL.

Following republication in The Birmingham Ledger of an editorial from The Daily regarding the action of the Birmingham Post of the American Legion in regard to Senator Reed's address there and the receipt of a letter by The Daily from a resident of Irondale, Ala., local members of the Legion today expressed strong resentment of what they term insinuations against them contained in the letter.

The editorial as published in The Ledger and to which the letter refers, the letter itself and a statement from an official of the Legion follows:

LEGION HOPS ON REED

(The Albany-Decatur Daily)
The American legion, post No. 1, of Birmingham, demonstrated that it has a mission to perform—the protection of 100 per cent Americanism—when it adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed address of James A. Reed, of Missouri, in the magic city. The action of the legion was wise and well taken. While the right of free speech is guaranteed in Dixie, there are certain abuses of the privilege that amount to insult, and should be rebuked. The south has no love for men of the Reed type, and no desire to hear their harangues.
They are only tolerated in this section through a spirit of hospitality, which Reed took advantage of and considerably strained.

Editor, Albany-Decatur Daily:

The attached clipping caught my eye in the "Ledger." Permit me to say the people of our city have not delegated to Post No. 1 or any other men or set of men the right to determine the sort of Americanism we can safely use. If you Mr. Editor could have seen the crowd that packed the Jefferson and overflowed on the street to hear the Hon. James A.
Reed's interpretation of Americanism you would perhaps realize that Wilsonism does not always fill the bill of Americanism. Men are again thinking for themselves and refuse to delegate this function to any man or set of men, the venting of newspaper spleen and threats of force are a wonderful aid in showing people where they are at and where they are being driven. Also, "keep-it-up." On the other hand, after vigorous advertising the Hon. J. Tom Reelin only managed to get a fair sized audience out to hear him. Perhaps this fact will show you how matters stand in the Magic City just now. The threat of using force to keep Sen. Reed from speaking shows conclusively to any thinking man a desire to hide something that no argument or reason could do. A white soul welcomes instead of dreads the spotlight. It's only the criminal inclined who have to depend upon force to gain their ends.

Allow me to say in conclusion that any question of being a 100 per cent American would not have been a safe one to propound personally to any one of the 6,000 who heard and applauded Sen. Reed.

I am writing this as a personal letter not intended for publication and only to remind you that a chosen few haven't any corner on genuine Americanism at present and we do not care to have it doled out to us by prescription as it. God bless the old Stars and Stripes and may she come out of this thing brighter and better and more American than European despite the hopes of some eminent financiers who are spending money like water to accomplish the latter.

Observer,
R. F. LACKEY.

AUSTRIA IS EXPECTED SIGN PEACE TERMS WITHIN TEN DAYS

FINAL ALLIED DEMANDS HANDED TO DR. RENNER AT PARIS

(International News Service.)

Paris, July 21.—With the Austrian treaty virtually disposed of, the final terms were handed to Dr. Renner, of the Austrian peace delegation, without ceremony yesterday. Belief prevailed in conference circles today that the Bulgarian treaty would be completed this week and presented to the Bulgarians within ten days. Austria is expected to signify within the ten days stipulated by Premier Clemenceau her readiness to sign up.

The financial terms provide that the Austrian pre-war debt shall be apportioned among the various forer-parts of Austria and that the Austrian coinage and war bonds circulating in the separated territory shall be taken up by the new governments and redeemed as they see fit.
Under the military terms the Austrian army is henceforth reduced to 30,000 men on a purely voluntary basis.

Paragraph five, relating to the military, says that the Austrian army shall not exceed 30,000 men, including officers and depot troops. Within three months the Austrian military forces shall be reduced to this number, universal military service abolished and voluntary enlistment substituted.

Within three months the armament of the Austrian army must be reduced accordingly to detailed schedules, and all surplus surrendered. The manufacture of all war material shall be confined to one single factory under the control of the state and other such establishments shall be closed down or converted. Importation and exportation of arms, munitions and war materials of all kinds is forbidden.

While recognizing that Austria's resources will not be adequate to make complete reparation, the allied and associated governments request, and Austria undertakes that she will make compensation for damage done to civilians and their property, in accordance with categories of damages similar to those provided in the treaty with Germany.

The amount of damage is to be determined by the reparation commission provided for in the treaty with Germany, which is to have a special section to handle the Austrian situation. The commission will notify Austrian before May 1, 1921, of the extent of her liabilities and of the schedule of payments for the discharge thereof during a period of thirty years. It will bear in mind the diminutions of Austria's resources and capacity of payment resulting from the treaty.

ADVANCE ON MEXICANS

LONDON, July 21.—An advance on Moscow, seat of the Russian Bolshe-vist government, has been begun by the anti-Bolshevist forces, said a dispatch today.

BELA KUN REPLACED

(International News Service.)
LONDON, July 21.—Dispatches from Swiss sources today confirmed the report that Bela Kun has been disposed of as red dictator of Hungary and that a Bolshevik leader of even more radical tendencies is in charge of Budapest.

SECRET TREATY

(International News Service.)
LONDON, July 21.—The Laidach correspondent of the Daily Express telegraphed today that he had learned that the Italians and Roumanians have concluded a secret treaty aimed against the Jugo-Slavs.

NO WAR OF REVENGE

(International News Service.)
BERLIN, July 21.—"Everybody living in Germany knows that we neither would or could undertake a war of revenge, declared Count Von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the U. S., in an address here this afternoon. Count Von Bernstorff also warned against speculating on a war between America and Japan, which he said "is a mistake often made in Germany before."

"The protest under which our government signed the treaty still remains in full force, but having signed loyalty and honesty demand compliance," continued Von Bernstorff.

OFFICER FIRED ON WHEN HE RAIDED LEIGEBER PLACE

RETURNED THE FIRE WITH DEADLY ACCURACY—BOTH MEN LOSE LIVES.

Two Are Under Arrest

ALLEGED ACCOMPLICES WILL BE REMOVED TO ATHENS JAIL.
GRAND JURY CONVENES.

(Special to the Daily.)

CULLMAN, Ala., July 21.—John W. Sparks, sheriff of Cullman county, and John Mack were killed last night about 10 o'clock in a pistol duel which they fought on the premises of John Leigebier. Mack died instantly, two bullets having entered the breast and one the stomach. The sheriff, shot through the neck, walked up the street a distance of 100 yards and fell, dying from loss of blood before physicians could reach him. He made no statement.

The shooting, the most sensational in the history of Cullman county, has greatly stirred local feeling and John Leigebier and Lillian Cramer of Birmingham, a white woman, arrested on the charge of complicity in the killing of the sheriff, will be moved to the Athens, Ala., jail this afternoon for safekeeping. In the meantime, the special term of court which convened here this morning will probe the tragedy. Solicitor Almon, who organized the grand jury at 10 o'clock this morning, announced that he would begin an immediate investigation of the death of the sheriff. Judge Robt.
Brickell, of Huntsville, is presiding at the sessions of the court.

Oscar Fischer, coroner, is acting as sheriff of Cullman county until a successor to Sheriff Sparks is named by Governor Kilby.

Went to Raid Place

Sheriff Sparks, accompanied by Chief of Police Burwell Graves, went to the Leigebier place, which is of unsavoury reputation, for the purpose of making a raid. The sheriff entered from the front of the building and the chief of police from the rear. At the top of the steps, Chief Graves stated, the sheriff was met by Mack with drawn revolver, who ordered the officer to throw down his gun. The sheriff replied by opening fire, which Mack returned. Mack fell dead in his tracks, and the sheriff walked out in search of aid. Had he remained quiet, physicians said, they could have saved his life, as he was seized with a fit of coughing from the exercise which stimulated the flow of blood from his jugular vein, which had been opened by the bullet. Although a witness to the shooting, the police chief was too far removed to take part in it.

This is the second raid made on the Leigebier place within the past ten days. On the first raid, Leigebier and the Cramer woman were both arrested, and the woman pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy when arraigned. Another woman also was an inmate of the place, but was not at home last night, according to reports.

Leigebier was a noted character here. During the period of the world war he incensed local citizens by his lack of patriotism, and in consequence was compelled to place a sign in front of his place reading "To Hell With the Kaiser."

Had Great Record

Sheriff Sparks, although serving his first term, had made a record as an officer. He was fearless and determined in the enforcement of the law, and had raided more illicit stills during the period of his incumbency than any sheriff in the state. He is survived by a wife and two children.
Mack is survived by a wife and one child.

Solicitor Almon was summoned over the telephone last night, and arrived here on an early train today.

Central Labor Union Will Meet Tonight

The regular meeting of the Central Labor Union will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at Hardage Hall. All delegates are urged to be present as important business will come up.

CHAMP SERIES TO OPEN HERE TODAY

BOTH TEAMS ON THEIR TOES AWAITING BEGINNING OF HOSTILITIES.

The semi-pro championship of North Alabama and Tennessee is expected to be settled by the series of games which open here today with Lawrenceburg opposing the Albany-Decatur outfit. Games will be played on the local lot Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Thursday the teams will journey to the Tennessee city where three more contests will be staged.

Both teams have been strengthened since their last meeting when several records were smashed. The squad have placed six games this season, all but two of them being won by one score, one of them was a tie, and three of them went for extra innings. Three were played here and three in Lawrenceburg. The first game won by Lawrenceburg was capped before the return of several members of the old Y. M. C. A. team, who now are on the payroll of Albany-Decatur.

Manager Hames today declared his outfit is confident of taking both series from the visitors.

The probable line-ups of the teams follows:

Lawrenceburg:	Albany-Decatur:
Allison, ss.	Roberts, lf.
Huckleby, 1b.	Halbrooks, 2b.
Cole, 2b.	Frohoff, rf.
Cook, cf.	McDuff, ss.
Smith, c.	N. Baker, 3b.
Brownlow, 3b.	Steadman, c.
Derrick, rf.	Erwin, 1b.
Parks, 1b.	E. Baker, cf.
Brookys, p.	Graham, p.

Frank Barnes will be out of the game on account of illness and "Bull" Steadman will take Barnes position behind the bat for the locals.

CIVIL WAR RAGES IN HONDURAS

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 21.—A deree declaring a state of war effective immediately, on the ground that there was a movement afoot to depose the government, was issued by the President of Honduras on July 18, according to advices to the state department this afternoon. It is assumed by officials that a state of civil war was declared.

Today's Court Nets City More than $200

More than $200 was collected in fines in the Decatur police court this morning as a result of the activity of the police court this morning as a result of the activity of the police department over the week-end. Eight were arrested on gaming charges as a result of a raid on an alleged game.
The defendants were fined $13.60 each.

Local Party Will Motor to Atlanta

A motor party from Albany-Decatur will leave Tuesday for Atlanta, Ga., and other points in the southeast.
The party will be composed of: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Boggs, Hugh Boggs and his sisters, Mrs. J. A. Thomas and Mrs. W. F. Scanlon.

FALEN AUSTRIA IS GIVEN TERMS

Austria, moribund when tempted into the world war by Germany, is quietly passing out of the back door of world powers with her hat in her hand. She is being asked to affix her signature to the peace treaty written by the allies, and having no option but to decorate the dotted line, will acquiesce as cheerfully as she may in whatever demands are submitted. Her ruin is complete, her future sealed.

Through the magnanimity of the conquerors, this once boastful empire is to be left with an army of 30,000 men, including officers. More insulating, still, she is not to be asked to pay even a reasonable indemnity, for she is no longer considered as anything more than a small and insignificant state. Her lands have been divided, her rulers deposed, her autocratic government overthrown.

But for the fact that Austria consented to act as the cat's paw of the Hohenzollerns, and that the Hapsburgs had long been the allies of that contemptible dynasty, the world might pity the fallen nation, so abject and lowly is the position it now occupies.

FORD "IGNORANT IDEALIST."
MODERN TORTURE CHAMBER.
A LEPER LOOSE — NEVER MIND.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

A leper is at large. His name is Nicholas Foniadakis, last seen in Philadelphia. But you needn't worry. Once this would have been a dreadful piece of news, and every man would have watched his neighbor for white spots on his skin. But there is no cause to worry now. The world has learned that soap, water and sensible food are more powerful than leprosy.

Henry Ford says, "I will admit I am an ignorant idealist." A simple, ancient admission. All idealists are ignorant in one way or another. They are, to begin with, ignorant of the fact that it doesn't pay to be an idealist. Also, to confess ignorance and realize it is the beginning of wisdom. When they told Socrates he was to be honored as the wisest man in Greece, he said it was probably because he knew that he knew nothing.

And Montesquieu, whose "Spirit of Laws" is among the most learned books ever written, tells you at the beginning that you cannot hurt his feelings by proving his ignorance. He knows about it already.

If the country had a few more "ignorant idealists" like Ford, dividing their millions with workmen, handing back to the Government a gigantic fortune because unwilling to make profit by war, and at the same time giving to the public the best possible product at the lowest possible price, it would be a good thing for the United States.

Here's cheerful news. American soldiers can no longer be executed without the approval of the President. General March has ordered commanding generals to refrain from further exercise of the power to order execution of a death sentence until the President has had a chance to give his opinion.

It would seem that going out to fight for his country should not deprive a man of his right to the usual trial and review of evidence.

"Ten thousand employees of the International Harvester Company strike. They demand one dollar an hour."

Good luck to their demand, nothing like keeping money in circulation. But what a change since the day, not long ago, when, according to the historian, Bancroft, only one mechanic in the United States, a carpenter in New England, was able to earn as much as $1 a day all the year round.

Many things workmen ought to have and will have what they haven't got, but they have some things that they didn't use to have. And in consequence the whole world is more prosperous.

Have you ever seen the "Iron Virgin," hollow statue of a woman made of steel, the inside lined with long, sharp spikes? Criminals of different kinds, including religious offenders, were put inside the body, which was closed, the spikes entering the living creature within. That was painful.

Have you seen the thumbscrew, the rack that stretched the body, the boot that squeezed the feet, the wheel on which the bones were broken, one after another; the brazier with red hot coals placed at the victim's feet? Those instruments of "justice" and religious enthusiasm are out of date now. But you might see an excellent imitation of their tortures in the Tombs Prison in New York, where men are carefully watched to keep them from killing themselves.

They are the miserable victims of drugs, locked away, unable to get the poisons to which their nerves have become accustomed. And those nerves inflict upon them tortures more horrible than any invented in the name of justice or religion in ages gone by.

Did you know that the torture inflicted on a drug victim, when the drug is taken away, is used by detectives in forcing confession of crime? Criminals, as a rule, are users of drugs, and police get information from criminals.

The easiest way to get it is to lock up the victim, show him cocaine, morphine or heroin, and say, "When you confess and enable me to prove the crime of your pal, you can have this."

Many a detective, credited with marvellous sagacity, did no more than hand through the bars a little cocaine, in return for which some tortured creature betrayed his comrade in crime. Torture of witnesses was made illegal by the French Revolution. But it hasn't stopped.

Von Tirpitz predicts that Germany can never exist and go forward as a Republic. That is what they were saying in Rome about twenty-six hundred years ago, when the kings were put out and other bosses with republic nittles substituted. At about the same time Rome with her nearby fights, on the Italian peninsula, and later her Punic wars against great Carthage, way laying the foundations of absolute world rule. It is surprising how well nations can get along without kings or emperors, if they know how to think.

I was given the privilege of replying to E. E. Lackey, of Ironville, Alabama, and to any other citizen who may harbor the illusion, that the American Legion is composed of criminally inclined. Personally and on behalf of the men who form the Legion in Alabama and the other states I resent the intimation that we fear the arguments of the orator from Missouri or any other self appointed guardian of the safety of the American nation and whose beliefs may differ with ours on the League of Nations or any other question. We have nothing to hide as the man who signs himself "Observer" but whose letter shows he is a mighty poor one, seeks to make the public believe.

The American Legion is an organization composed entirely of men who wore the uniform of their country during the late war and who served the Stars and Stripes honorably. Their honorable discharge from the army, navy or marine corps is their card of admission into the Legion. There is no rank in the Legion. The members are "comrades." There is no partisanship. Every member is expected to exercise his power of the ballot as his conscious dictates. During the recent meeting of the Legion in Birmingham there was never a mention of a national leader of either party. The League of Nations was endorsed by an overwhelming vote of the delegates on the floor because the majority of them believe it is the best preventive yet discovered for war and having seen one war at close range, they do not desire that the next generation shall go through another.

And yet, Mr. Observer, who apparently does his observing through Reed's distorted spectacles, kindly remember please that the resentment expressed by the Birmingham post of the American Legion was not aimed at the Senator's attitude on the League of Nations, but because his errors of omission and commission in the senate and in his private life have failed to bring him up to the standard of 100 per cent Americanism the Legion hopes to see in every public character. He has been weighed in the scales and found wanting.

However, Mr. Observer, its not Senator Reed nor the League of Nations that I wish to discuss, but I do want to brand as absolute falsehoods any intimation from you or anyone else that the men who carried the Stars and Stripes in France, Germany, on the high seas and here in America, and since their discharge from the service have landed themselves together in the Legion, are any less good American citizens than you are, because of that organization. If you meant your letter as such intimation I want to state to you publicly that you tell a falsehood and had I not received my discharge several months ago, I would probably use a few prefixes with the word, for it is an unfortunate habit of both our army and navy to express their sentiment in rather strong language. If the shoe doesn't fit, then do not put it on!

The American Legion stands primarily for 100 per cent Americanism; for comradeship of the men who were in the service; for cleaner politics in this country; for the upbuilding of our nation; for aiding the returned soldiers, sailors and marines in getting started in civilian life again and afterward; for aiding them and their families in case of distress; for measures not men; for better education for the youth of America; for all of the ideals for which America fought. Does that sound like the constitution of a band of anarchists? Did the men who died in France, in the camps and on the seas lay down their lives as traitors to the cause of right? I fear your reading lately has all been R-E-E-DING!

Observer, don't let your blind-partisanship cause you to attack an organization pledged only to do all in its power to preserve the American government and its ideals, and composed only of men who fought to save your home and the other homes in this nation from the clutches of the Hun!

Finally, let me ask you, did you really mean what you said when you declared you wrote your letter personally to the editor of The Daily and not for publication? Before you answer let me remind you that the paragraph in which you declared you did, does not fit in well, from your point of view, with one just a little farther up, in which you stated that a "white soul welcomes instead of dreads the spotlight."

"Smoke Virginia Straight"

Does Quality mean "fancy price" to you?

Some smokers still pay a fancy price for "descendants" of Virginia tobacco that was transplanted years ago to Turkey. But men who judge tobacco by quality rather than price prefer the original golden "Virginia."

For Virginia tobacco has all the qualities which men want in a cigarette—flavor, body, zest and "life."

That's why Virginia doesn't need to be mixed with other tobaccos, but tastes best when you smoke it straight—in a Piedmont.

STATE SHORT COURSE FOR BLUE BOYS AT AUBURN, ALA.

By L. N. Duncan, Supt. Junior and Home Economics Extension Work.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

At a convenient time during each summer the corn, pig, peanut and calf boys from the several counties of the state are called together at Auburn for a course of special intensive training. Plans are being made now for this course for the present season.

The boys attending the Short Course receive a series of lectures and demonstrations each day along many lines of scientific agriculture. The lectures and demonstrations are given by our foremost leaders in agricultural work. Each night a series of lantern slides and moving pictures of educational value are shown the boys. During the school a number of speakers talk to the boys. The purpose of this is to enlarge the ideas of the farm boys, broaden their horizon, and give them new inspiration, encouragement and hope.

This school is so organized, and conducted as to give practical information, pleasure and recreation, encouragement and inspiration. In other words, we endeavor to touch every side of the lives of these farm boys and to make them fully realize the very great opportunities in farming when properly followed. We also endeavor to show them that farming is a noble profession where wealth, happiness and contentment may be found.

In developing the wealth of our agricultural lands and our rural communities it is of prime importance to have leaders on the farms. The best source of leadership is the strong and vigorous young manhood now on the farms, and this should be developed. Such a school sends back to the farms in the several counties each year a large number of fine young men filled with a new desire to make the old farm what it should be. They will be the centers for the radiation of new thought and ideals for the farming community.

The farm demonstration agent in each county has this matter in charge and arranges for the county delegation to attend this school. The business men of the county should rally to the support of the county agent and aid him in every way possible in making plans for carrying a number of boys to this State Short Course.

While Cities Swelter, They Sit by Log Fire

While Albany and Decatur swelter under the glaring rays of old Sol at least two prominent residents are sitting close to a fire in order to keep warm. A letter received today by Will Wyker from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wyker, written from The Chateau, Lake Louise, Alberta, Canada, says they are forced to keep near a big log fire because of the cold. Just a short distance from the hotel the snow is 50 feet deep on the mountains.

They will sail from Vancouver to Seattle on July 23 and on July 28 will resume their journey to Alaska.

Two Things He Remembered.
The proprietor and editor of a certain local paper had been indulging in a little plain talk and prophesying disaster to the little town if certain improvements and sanitary reforms were not forthwith adopted. A local parson sided with the rural council which neglected these things and, after a sermon evidently pointed at the newspaper man, said: "You should remember the fate of Balaam." "I do," was the prompt reply from the pew, "and I also remember who it was that warned the prophet."

Substitute for Tin.
An Australian tin substitute is the compound of carboric acid and formaldehyde. In methylated spirits this forms a varnish for food containers, saving the tin plate used in such great quantities for cans.

Cooling Device at Church Works Well

Not until near the close of yesterday morning's service at the Central Baptist church did the rays of the sun from without begin to win over the new cold air current so recently set going from the church basement. According to its inventor, B. L. Malone, the new plant, will have some important changes made in it before next Sunday morning at which time, the only warmth noticeable at the church will be the warmth of fellow-manifested by all and to all.

An examination of the new device revealed that what was needed was a more direct current as it passed over the ice on its way to the auditorium above; and also the placing of the ice bank a little nearer the floor radiators.

Hadn't Changed.

One day a little boy came to the postoffice window asking for mail. The clerk inquired the lad's name and gave him some mail. The following day he again appeared asking for mail, but was not recognized by the busy clerk, who inquired, "Whose little boy are you?" And the boy, looking trustfully up into her face, replied, "Why, I'm the same little boy I was yesterday."

Water-Proof Match.

A new safety match which is claimed to be wind-proof and water-proof will be especially useful in modern warfare. It will burn five seconds in the face of a strong wind, and when it goes out, it will not start a fire, no matter where it is thrown.

SAYS THE ENTIRE NEIGHBORHOOD IS TAKING DRECO

ANNISTON LADY RELIEVED OF CONSTIPATION, STOMACH DISORDER, GASTRITIS, AND GENERAL WEAKNESS, BY THE NEW MEDICINE.

"The whole neighborhood cut our way is taking Dreco, and everybody has a good word to say for it," declared Mrs. Mattie Pearson, the highly esteemed lady residing on Route 2, Gadsden Road, Anniston, Ala.

"My mother has had bad stomach trouble for years. Indigestion, gas in her stomach and pains bothered her almost daily. She was so nervous that she hardly knew what a night's sleep was like, was so constipated that she had to be taking some kind of medicine all the time, and frequently had severe headaches. Her appetite failed and her general state of health was very low.

"She always believed in the old time root and herb remedies, so I bought her a bottle of Dreco, which was being so highly endorsed by lots of good people around here. She began to improve almost immediately. The gas quit collecting in her stomach; bowels acted regularly every day without taking other medicine; headaches passed off, and her sleep, became sound and refreshing. She began to eat more and her strength returned, but best of all, even though she was eating more, her stomach gave her no trouble at all.

"All the folks remarked how much better she was looking, and she never fails to tell them that Dreco did it all for her and she is very happy over it all."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Albany by Albany Drug Co., and in Decatur by Hilda Drug Co.—Advertisement.

"Prince Charlie."

Charles Edward, the grandson of James II of England, sometimes called Bonnie Prince Charlie, was known as the young pretender, son of James II. At the time of the rising of 1745 he was at one time very near entering London, but the fatality that hung over the Stuarts overwhelmed him. He retreated to Scotland, where he and his army were utterly routed at Culloden. With him the direct line of the Stuarts became extinct. He died January 31, 1788.

Powerful Light.

The amount of light given by a single lightning flash is sufficient to illuminate an area two miles square with an average illumination of one candle. To produce such an illumination, an eminent electrician estimates the expenditure of 13,000 horse power for one second would be required.—Indianapolis News.

Piston Rings.

Piston rings, of which millions are used yearly, are shaped by centrifugal action from molten metal in the special machine of DeLavaud. In tests at Columbia university, it has been shown that these rings are not only made faster than by other methods, but are actually stronger and more resilient than rings of the same chemical composition cast in sand. The microscope reveals a more uniform and finer structure.

Famous Martinique Women.

Josephine, ill-starred wife of Napoleon, was born in Martinique, and her statue, splendid and melancholy, dominates the public plaza, or Savanne, near the center of Fort de France. Here, too, was born Mme. de Maintenon, the beautiful courtesan, whose influence on Louis XIV was responsible for one of the religious massacres during his reign.

MASONIC THEATRE TODAY

"I Want to Forget," a new William Fox picture starring Evelyn Nesbit, tells the remarkable story of a woman whose sole ambition has been to capture men's hearts and to "go the pace." It is to be shown for the first time at the Masonic theatre today.

The "butterfly" woman sullies her wings, but that is of no concern to her, so long as pleasure follows upon pleasure. But one day Varda realizes that life is something more than empty self-indulgence. The war comes in grim reality, and its fire sears her heart. She enters the Secret Service Department, and, like so many other women of the world today, finds her salvation in war work.

Of course, there is a handsome young man in the story; and the winning and wooing of Varda is by no means accomplished with ease.

How Chinaman Drinks Tea.

The Chinaman—in preparing tea places a pinch of leaves in a Chinese teacup, which is without a handle, pours boiling water over them and places the cover on the cup. In a few seconds the tea is ready for drinking; the covered cup is raised to the mouth, and, with the fingers of the hand holding the cup, the lid is moved just sufficiently to permit the liquid to flow into the mouth as the cup is tilted.

Peculiar Bush Beans.

Careful tests have shown that certain kinds of bush beans, which as a rule bear one good crop of early beans and then cease to produce, will, when started in flowerpots under glass, produce a fine crop much earlier than those planted in the open soil, and continue to produce beans all through the summer up until the vines are cut by frost in autumn. It is supposed the age of the plant makes the difference, as the one started under glass is older before it bears any beans at all.

Giant British Airship Not Best Effort of English Craftsmen

R-34 IS SIMPLY ADAPTATION OF 1916 "ZEPP" TYPE; BIG ONES COMING.

By FLOYD MACGRIFF.

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, June 30 (by R-34 Air Route).—The giant British airship which carried this story to America does not represent the best efforts of the British airship craftsmen and designers. The R-34 is simply an adaptation of the 1916 type Zeppelins. Practically all the British plans for the first rigid airship to cross the Atlantic were taken from a Zeppelin brought down intact during a raid on England. In addition, special information was obtained from Swiss sources during the war for making parts of the British rigids.

The R-34 and its sister ship, the R-33, simply show what British ingenuity has been able to do with German models and ideas.

When the war broke out Germany led the world in rigid airship construction, and naturally Britain saw that if she was to "make hay while the sun shone" she would have to start from where the Germans left off. Large rigid airships were called into being by naval requirements, the Germans having had the advantage during the battle of Jutland through airship scouting.

But the British are now turning out an airship expected to surpass anything the Germans have yet produced, and that expectation is embodied in the R-80, an airship 85 feet in diameter at its greatest breadth and having a gas capacity of 3,500,000 cubic feet. It will lift 70 tons, as against only 40 tons lifting capacity of the R-34, which has a gas capacity of 2,000,000 cubic feet.

It is the rigid airship which holds the greatest possibilities in trans-Atlantic travel. That was the theory before any of the Atlantic flights were attempted and it is the accepted fact now. Alcock, Read and Hawker agree that the immediate future in over-Atlantic trips lies first with rigid airships, because the danger is minimized to the utmost and there is an absence of fatigue, and second, with seaplanes, which would be considerably faster than airships, but could come to the water's surface for repairs. The risk is too much for aeroplanes.

Thus, the first Atlantic trip of the R-34, done purely for reasons of gathering scientific data on weather conditions and air currents, may be expected to be the forerunner of the across ocean commercial air travel. The fact that an airship will soon be available that can take aboard a commercial cargo of three to forty tons makes commercial over ocean flight feasible and practical. No seaplane has yet been built which can more than carry its own weight, plus sufficient crew and fuel to get the machine across.

A degree of comfort for passengers is possible in rigid airships which is hardly ever likely to be attained on seaplanes or aeroplanes on a long flight.

It is a fact that the Germans have perfected an airship engine unexcelled by any in the world. It is known as the Maybach, and it is not affected by high altitudes or low temperatures. The British "Zepps" are equipped with Sunbeam engines.

The Germans, it is known, have plans for building Zeppelins even larger than the far-famed super-Zepps. Soon after the armistice was signed it was revealed the Germans had machines fully capable of a flight to New York and return without taking on food or supplies of any nature in America. It also must be remembered that a German Zeppelin already has made a non-stop flight of some 5,200 miles. This was in an attempt to get medical supplies to the German Southwest Africa force, which surrendered before the flight was half completed.

Soldering Aluminum.

French manufacturers are the most successful in use of aluminum solder. They use it in proportions as follows: Zinc, 80 parts; copper, 8 parts; aluminum, 12 parts. For soldering aluminum by means of the ordinary soldering iron, 95 to 99 parts of tin are recommended to 5 to 8 parts of bismuth, which makes an ordinary soft solder.

Hint for Gardeners.

Buddy was helping work in the garden, when grandpa told him to pull some radishes for supper; the ground was hard, and Buddy had great difficulty in trying to pull them; finally he gave it up, and going to grandpa said: "I wish you'd planted 'em upside down, grandpa; then they wouldn't be so hard to pull."

MRS. O'FLAHERTY ON WISE BUYING

(By Anita Day Downing.)

Mrs. Hogan sank down on the single stool the grocery shop of Mrs. O'Flaherty, and fanned herself with an afternoon newspaper picked off the pile on the counter.

"It's tired out you're looking," said Mrs. O'Flaherty, sympathetically.

"It's tired out I am," returned Mrs. Hogan. "What with tramping this whole town from end to end, and riding home in a street car that was trying to transport half the inhabitants of the place in one load, I'm ready to drop."

"It was out of duty you went," commented Mrs. O'Flaherty. "If it had been pleasure, you'd never be complaining. You'd be thinking of an excuse to Mike Hogan for not having his dinner ready when he comes home. Now you'll feed him stuff off the delicatessen counter, and dare him to complain."

"It's true," assented Mrs. Hogan. "It's the martyr to economy I've been this day. In the morning's paper I saw there was a bargain sale at 'Martin's', way down on Tenth street. They was selling things for two or three cents cheaper for everything. So I left my washing (bad cess to it, it's still waiting for me), and the breakfast dishes, and took a basket, and went over there. Mike had been preaching to me about cutting down expenses."

"Yes," said Mrs. O'Flaherty, attacking a spot of syrup on the otherwise immaculate counter, "so you walked yourself to death; then you got in a crowd of women as silly as yourself, and fought for stuff you wouldn't have for a git any other time. You ought a lot of trash you didn't need, because it looked cheap, and found the things you really wanted were either all sold or not fit to buy."

"I know it," agreed Mrs. Hogan, "and by the time I'd fought my way out of the place I was that faint I had to stop in and buy a cup of tea and a sandwich."

"And there was that ham you bought for the children's lunch at school, when they couldn't come home for a hot lunch with you out," supplemented Mrs. O'Flaherty, apologetically.

"And, gosh, home, I went on Mrs. Hogan, miserably. I bought a ham, and the stuff you'll be buying for Mike's dinner," inexorably from her counter, on the counter was a hot foot.

"It's too late to make a stew out of last night's roast," defended Mrs. Hogan, "though it'll be spoiled by to-morrow, I'm afraid."

"And you cross and tired, and the children half sick from eating a cold lunch that you'd never planned for till the last minute, and then used to good hot food at noon," said Mrs. O'Flaherty.

"And Mike going out in a huff to George's on the corner, and buying beer for the bunch," innocently from Mrs. Hogan, the thing was done in the end of a perfect day," finished Mrs. O'Flaherty, conclusively. She drew up her plump form to its commanding height, and set her strong elbows akimbo, her large, capable hands on her full hips.

"Now listen to a preachment," she began oratorically, "and then run home and give Mike the indignation. A bargain is never a bargain till you've counted up everything that makes it. You've spent a whole day, and wasted a lot of money and energy, to save a nickel or two on a peck of wormy apples, or such that you'll likely be throwing away the half of. If you don't mix your saying with common sense, a sad result you'll be finding. Spending without thinking is like bread without yeast, or potatoes without salt."

"Money isn't the only thing that's good to save. There's time and strength, and keeping your husband fit for his job, and the children fit for school, and yourself happy and good-natured. If it's time or strength you're spending, get your money's worth."

Mrs. Hogan rose stiffly and started for the door. Then she turned.

"Give me a couple of Thrift Stamps," she said, laying half a dollar on the counter. "It's tonight's movie money that's buying them. They'll just finish my book, and I'll be coming to-morrow for a War Savings Stamp. I'm going to stay home tonight and think what an idiot I've been this day."

Mrs. O'Flaherty tore off two stamps from the sheet, and handed them to Mrs. Hogan.

"Never mind," she said consolingly, "buying Thrift Stamps is that sensible. It saves a whole lot of foolishness."

Bat Nelson Picks Dempsey to Win

By HERBERT N. BERG,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 21.—Down in the little but widely advertised town of Hegewich, Ill., dwells the original "I told you so" of the fistic world—"Batting Nelson," if you please.

Bat picked Johnson to win over Jeffries, Willard to win over Johnson and then, right in the face of a sea of Willard admirers, picked Dempsey to defeat the champion. And here is the logic Bat issued on the day previous to the fight to the writer while in Toledo waiting for the big quarrel:

"Picked Johnson over Jeffries, Willard over Johnson, and now making it three straight by picking Dempsey over Willard. Dempsey has in his favor youth and eleven years. He is in good condition and Willard is not. He has trained properly and Willard hasn't. He has been fighting regularly and Willard hasn't. Dempsey likes the game, can punch, is over six feet and weighs nearly 200 pounds. There are reasons enough why the challenger should and will win."

And what the "I told you so" did to the doubtful ones that night in Toledo after the fight was a sin. To one bird in particular whom Bat begged to "get down" on the challenger, Bat sputtered as follows:

"Yes, I know all you guys say that old Bat is crazy. Just like a fox I'm crazy. I feathered my nest on this battle and what is more, I'm going to feather my nest on others. Pick 'em? Say, that's my biggest suit. I don't pick from the standpoint of favoritism. I look 'em over, watch 'em work and then I pick the winner. Easy for me, and still you buy an old Bat is nuts. There's a lot of fin nuts in this country."

And then Bat happened to think of a few painful details of the big scrap, and let go as follows:

"Say, where do they get that idea of charging two bits for ice water at the ringside? Sure, I put up two bits, and the guy only let me have one dipperful of water. Can you beat that? Just watch me at the next fight. I'm going to be there with a whole commissary department and with all my loose change down on the winner. 'Yep, Bat's pretty crazy. I'm saying.'"

CHANGE NOTION ABOUT CALOMEL: NOW DELIGHTFUL

Old-Style Calomel Gives Place to the De-Nauseated Tablets Known as Calotabs.

With all of the liver-cleansing and system-purifying qualities of the old style calomel, but robbed of its sickening and griping effects, Calotabs is destined to become the most popular as well as the most useful of all home remedies. For biliousness, constipation and indigestion it is indispensable, for nothing but calomel will straighten out a disordered liver.

One tablet at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all—no taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. Next morning your liver is active, your system purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite. Eat what you please—no danger.

Genuine Calotabs are never sold in bulk. Ask for the original, sealed package. Price thirty-five cents. If you are not thoroughly delighted your druggist is authorized to refund your money.—(adv.)
